

Postpartum Doula Services Agreement

This agreement is between [[CLIENT_FULLNAME]] ("Client", "You", "the Mother") and Best Beginnings Doula Services ("Doula", "I", "We") governing the provision of doula services to the client.

Postpartum Doula Services Description

I will provide non-medical, physical, emotional, educational and family support after the birth of your baby/babies. I will assist you with self-care recovery measures, provide information on mother and baby care, assist you in caring for and feeding your baby/babies, breastfeeding support and baby wearing techniques. I will assist your family with adjusting to new roles and offer household organizational support including preparing occasional light meals, laundry, tidying and dish washing.

I agree to work for you on a pre-determined schedule, subject to availability and mutually agreeable hours. For billing purposes, an hour is considered to begin when I arrive at your home on a previously arranged time. If I run an errand for you on my way to your home, the hour begins when I arrive at my first stop.

Limitations

I do NOT diagnose medical conditions in the mother or baby/babies, however, will refer you to a health care provider when appropriate. I do NOT take over care of the baby/babies, however, will assist you in learning to care for the needs of your baby/babies. I do NOT do heavy housecleaning such as washing floors, cleaning bathrooms or yard work.

Liability waiver

Unforeseen accidents and injuries can happen. While working in your home and with you and your baby/babies, it is possible that an accident or injury will occur. I will do my best to prevent any such event but will not be held liable if one occurs.

Fees

The fee for the described services is $[[PP_FEE]] per hour. A non-refundable deposit of $[[PP_DEPOSIT]] is due when this contract is signed that will be applied toward the final 10 hours of service. Any balances for services provided will be due either at the time of final service if total number of contract hours is less than 12 or on the Friday of each week service is provided.

Cancellation and Refunds

The deposit reflects my commitment to be available to you as well as your commitment of payment for securing my services. No refund will be given on the deposit if you choose to not use my services once the contract has been signed.

Failure to provide and backup doula services

In the event of unpredictable or emergency scheduling conflicts, I will attempt to find a qualified replacement doula whom will be my assigned back-up for your family.
